BIG EDUCATION
WELLBEING &
CONSULTING

Making a difference, One Student, School and Organisation at a time

Dream Big Education Wellbeing & Consulting is a 100% Aboriginal-owned business founded by proud Gamilaroi author and educator Kylie Captain, whose best-selling books and journals are positively impacting the lives of many across Australia and abroad.

Kylie is a teacher, an educational leader, and President of the Aboriginal Studies Association with over two decades of experience. She is recognised for her engaging talks and workshops nationwide and her expertise in delivering impactful professional learning and workshops for schools, corporate and government organisations.

Kylie is Australia's First Aboriginal Accredited Human Synergistics Practitioner and is dedicated to guiding schools, students and organisations towards transformational change and unlocking their true potential.

All programs and services promote a sense of belonging, respect, and collaboration through Aboriginal cultural connection principles.

Kylie facilitates NESA Accredited Masterclasses with co-author Dr Cathie Burgess, who brings over 40 years of experience in education, research, and curriculum. Together, they offer professional learning for teachers and leaders nationally.

All workshops and engagements provide participants with strength-based and aspirational strategies to help them reach their full potential.

Contact Kylie to learn more about her transformational programs, workshops and services.
